Re: Brink's Global Services USA, Inc. v. Arat, et al., Case No.: 1:22-CV-06653-PGG

MEMO ENDORSED:

The conference currently scheduled for April 27, 2023, is adjourned sine die, given that this case has been referred to Judge Moses for general pretrial supervision.

SO ORDERED.

Paul G. Gardephe
United States District Judge

Dear Judge Gardephe:

Dated: April 26, 2023

I, together with my co-counsel, represent the Defendants in the above-referenced litigation. We write concerning the pre-trial conference that was rescheduled on February 21 to occur on April 27, 2023. Subsequent to the issuance of that Order, the expert discovery deadline in this action has been extended (to June 1) by Magistrate Judge Moses, and various discovery disputes remain to be adjudicated by her, as does as our (April 12) request to extend the fact discovery deadline (by 15 days). (See, e.g., ECF Dkt. Nos. 132 & 134.) A conference to address those matters is scheduled to take place before Magistrate Judge Moses on May 2. (Id.)

It is unclear to Defendants whether Your Honor still intends for the April 27 conference to occur that day after having referred discovery and other general pre-trial matters to Magistrate Judge Moses (per ECF No. 129). In the event it was purposely not rescheduled, we respectfully request that, in the interest of judicial economy and preserving party resources, the conference be adjourned at least until after fact discovery has been completed.<sup>1</sup> Please be advised that Plaintiff's counsel has advised that it "was always under the impression that the Status Conference would go forward," and that they plan to attend and "would oppose cancelling the hearing in light of the progress of the case to date."

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Steven C. Shuman

<sup>1</sup> If such request is granted, then after Magistrate Judge Moses rules on the fact discovery deadline, we will immediately submit to Your Honor suggested new dates on which all parties are available.
